Children can become missionaries of their peers and of others. With their simple honesty and their generosity, they can attract their small friends to the faith and create in adults the longing for a faith that is more impassioned and joyous. Pope John Paul II World Mission Day.

Because the Church is missionary by her very nature, all Christians are called to proclaim the gospel to the whole of creation.

The missionary task implies a respectful dialogue with those who do not yet accept the Gospel. Believers can profit from this dialogue by learning to appreciate better those elements of truth and grace which are found among peoples, and which are, as it were, a secret presence of God.
